Gonzalo,

We had permission in writing for the Bulltick/Aithre deal. No question about it, conditioned on so long as BT/AT was subordinate to Brevet as we all discussed, which you are as far as I understand. I am commenting quickly here to help reduce stress this no doubt has caused on your end! We are working on some issues with Brevet, and they are attempting to extort money from us, so this hardball tactic of them sending you this letter is, I am sorry to say, no surprise. For avoidance of doubt this email is not an official response of the company of course and we don't have our counsel against Brevet here copied yet (Proskauer), but suffice to say this has been forwarded to them now and there is no small amount of anger with Brevet for doing this. I probably should NOT take a call without our counsel on the line in the interest of atty-client privilege and all that, so let us get with them and revert back asap.
